

Bio: Simon Lewis, Executive Director | National Police Support Fund

Simon Lewis is the Executive Director of National Police Support Fund. He graduated from Marquette university in 2008 and has worked in the political sphere managing operations, fundraising, and political strategy at the state and national level. He enlisted in the Army National Guard in 2010 and has served as an enlisted Soldier and officer. His previous assignments include Military Police Platoon Leader, Company Executive Officer, Vulnerability Assessment Officer, and Assistant Operations Officer. He has deployed in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. He has extensive training and real-world experience in law enforcement operations, the National Incident Management System, FEMA operations, detention operations, Defense Support of Civilian Agency (DSCA) operations, and civil disturbance response. He currently lives in Milwaukee, WI.

